SEASON NOTES

- Monday night opener against Denver. Kansas City last opened a season on a Monday on Sep 13, 2010.
- Weeks 1 and 2 are both prime time at Arrowhead, ESPN and ABC then NBC.
- Only Kansas City and Carolina take a Week 5 bye, the earliest in the league. No game between Oct 4 and Oct 18.
- Patrick Mahomes returns from December ACL and LCL surgery, cleared for training camp in August.
- Thanksgiving night at Buffalo on Nov 26 is the 12th Thanksgiving game in franchise history and the second in a row.
- Weeks 12 and 13 are back to back Thursday nights, Buffalo on NBC then the Rams on Prime.
- Nine of the 17 opponents made the 2025 playoffs. Opponents went 155-134 last year, fifth toughest in the league.
- The building is simply Arrowhead Stadium again in 2026, dropping the GEHA Field prefix used since 2021.
- Arrowhead is the third oldest stadium in the NFL, behind Soldier Field and Lambeau Field.
- The season ends with both remaining AFC West games, at the Chargers then home to the Raiders. Dates still open.
